LTC Robert H. Vokac, USA (Ret.) Member, Executive Council

Robert “Bob” Vokac is a 3rd generation veteran of the U.S. Army, carrying on a proud family tradition of military service. His grandfather, Colonel Virgil R. Miller, was the first Executive Officer of the 442nd Regimental Combat Team and the second Commanding Officer. His father was also a World War Two Veteran. Following commissioning as a field artillery officer, Bob served more than 25 years in various command and staff positions in the United States, the Federal Republic of Germany, the Republic of Korea, and Canada. His final military posting was at the Canadian Forces College in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Bob retired as a Lieutenant Colonel.

Following his retirement in 2003 from the U.S. Army, Bob established Wolverine Consulting, a small business dedicated to professional military education and exercise design, development, and delivery. He has had the good fortune of supporting numerous projects for numerous organizations in Canada, the United States, Eastern Europe, Central America, South America, Asia, and Africa. Bob has remained associated with the Canadian Forces College since 1999 as a small group instructor and curriculum developer. He was a frequent television/radio commentator on defense and security issues while representing the Canadian Institute of Strategic Studies.

In addition to his membership in the Japanese American Veterans Association, Bob is a member of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Military Officers Association of America, Association of the United States Army, and the Marine Corps Association. Socially, he is a proud member of the Armour Heights Officers’ Mess in Toronto, Ontario, and the Army and Navy Club of Washington, D.C. He volunteers with and is a Board Member of the South Simcoe Railway, a steam heritage railway located in Tottenham, Ontario.

Bob graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Business Administration. Additionally, he holds a Master of Science in Operations Management from the University of Arkansas and a Master of Military Arts and Science in Theatre Operations from the United States Army Command and General Staff College.

Bob and his partner May currently reside in Alliston, Ontario, Canada.
